Men of Valour is an SCA counselling ministry for men which was launched in April, 2011. The ministry goal is to reach men of all ages who desire to gain victory over addictions/lust and to bring them into a vibrant and liberating relationship with Jesus. Hundreds of men, single, married, in church leadership, rich and poor have been counselled principally through online connection.

Men of Valour works closely with two other Christian recovery organizations: Setting Captives Free and Celebrate Recovery. The Men of Valour website (www.menofvalour.org), which has had over 1300 visitors, has published 59 Christ-centred blogs, which have received over 100 positive comments.

Here is what people are saying about what God is doing through the ministry of Men of Valour:

"I am staying the course, feeling stronger in the Lord than ever and am still free. So free that yesterday after declaring to my wife that I was free, (I do this every morning that I have succeeded in staying pure the previous day), I prayed out loud with her and as I thanked God for my freedom, I burst out in tears. They were true tears of joy, relief and honest gratefulness!"

"God's living water washes over my internal cravings and desires. The act of self-denial - choosing to live and act for God's glory - invites His living water into my heart. I will no longer find myself in situations where I am ashamed or embarrassed for the road I am travelling and the choices I am making. Choosing to live for God's glory makes me more confident and positive about the life I create for my family, which I pray will serve as a living testimony to the power and love of Jesus. Suddenly life has become exciting and I feel God's presence all the time and I look forward to everyday. One of my greatest joys was when my wife told me 'I haven't seen you so excited about God in a very long time and even then it would last only one week, not like this ever.' This event brought tears to my eyes and I cried tears of joy. My hunger for the things of God has grown leaps and bounds."

"Our marriage is really blossoming now that I've come clean and am feeding on God's Word. Thanks for your prayers".
