

SCA Eagle's Nest Ministry Centre

Rocky Lane, AB

To God be the glory, great things He has done and will continue to do, because He is faithful!

Our 2011 summer camp welcomed a total of 372 campers. Among them were 164 first-time campers! It brings about a lot of excitement and encouragement to know that new kids are still coming; kids that have possibly never heard God's wonderful plan of salvation before coming to camp.

In August, the Koroï family and Tom Friesen had their last day of ministry at SCA Eagle's Nest. We are grateful for all the service they poured into this ministry and for how God used them to further His Kingdom.

Marc Garreau joined the summer staff team as a cabin leader. When summer camp ended, Marc decided to stay at the centre, overseeing the property and continuing in ministry whenever possible. In the fall, Susie Wiebe also joined SCA as the full-time Office Manager, overseeing finances and other administrative aspects.

SCA Eagle's Nest had the privilege of hosting the SCA National Conference in September. It was a wonderful time to meet the SCA Head Office staff and missionaries, sharing with and encouraging one another.

The Christmas season was filled with preparing and delivering Christmas Gift Bags. This was a great time to connect with the local churches, especially youth. It was a blessing to see people working together in helping make this outreach possible. As always, the kids' faces and joy when they received the gifts made it all worth it.

Having been able to go out to the First Nations communities has definitely been one of the highlights of 2011. I (Susie) was able to see and visit some of the girls who were in my cabin approximately 10 years ago. To see the shock and joy on their faces when they saw me, as they hugged me over and over, made me realize how important it is to get back in their lives. The need for follow-up and discipleship is so great.

This past year has been a time of transition; former staff members left, and new staff came in. Looking back, there was no way anyone could have predicted all that would happen in 2011; but God revealed His faithfulness through all of it. So as we look ahead to 2012, we can only trust that the Lord will carry us through whatever lays before us. Our desire is to give Him glory in all that He has done and will do!
